

Department of Criminal Justice & Police Studies

Annual Assessment Survey

---

Name

Academic Year

Goal One: Current and Innovative Scholarship

---

Criterion: To have 70% of faculty present professional papers and or publish scholarly work in appropriate outlets.

1. Number of papers presented at professional meetings during the academic year.

2. Number and citations of publications (articles, chapters or books) published during the academic year.

Criterion: To have 50% of faculty will be involved in student/faculty research collaborations.

3. Number of student collaborations on research activities (funded or non-funded) during the academic year.

You may count the same student more than once if they are working on separate projects; please give a brief example on one of these collaborations.

Goal Two: Professional Service

---

Criterion: To have 80% of faculty will be engaged annually in professional organizations related to justice and safety; 80% providing service to the University.

4. Have you held offices, committees or editorial positions in discipline related professional organizations during the academic year?

Yes  No

If yes, please list positions:

5. Have you been active in a division or organization during the academic year but not in a specific official capacity?

Yes  No

6. Have you served as an outside reviewer or consultant for a CRJ or PLS program or agency during the academic year?

Yes     No

If yes, please list and note whether you were paid or not:

7. Have you served on any University, college or department committees during the academic year?

Yes     No    (approximately how many in total)   

If yes, please list the committees and your role (member/chair)

Goal Three: Student Learning

---

Criterion: To have 80% of the faculty to be engaged in course development and revision.

8. Number of existing course syllabi significantly revised or updated during the academic year.

--

9. Number of new course syllabi developed during the academic year.

--

10. Number of new online courses developed during the academic year.

--

Thank you